Q&A

Join us for FREE on-line presentations.

The presentations/webinars listed below are 'live' and include time for questions and answers.

The presentations are not meetings so we are not using Zoom, but a similar technology we have used for years. You can be anonymous; no webcam required.

These presentations will NOT be recorded. Nidus has many resources on the website at www.nidus.ca

Steps to register for a webinar. It's easy:

1. Click on the link for the topic, date and time you want to attend. Each of the 6 topics is offered at least two times – during the day and an evening.
2. Get confirmation of registration to your email. Do a test of your system to be sure everything works. If you need to cancel, see the end of the confirmation email.
3. On the date and just before the start time, click on the link in your confirmation email to join the webinar – click 'computer audio' if you are using built-in speakers or headphones with your device.

❶ What if I'm hospitalized? What plans can I make?

Don't wait! Get your affairs in order now. Learn about essential legal documents in BC for incapacity, end-of-life and after death. This presentation gives an overview of Representation Agreements, Enduring Powers of Attorney, & Wills.

❷ Types of power of attorney — what do I need?

It can be confusing to figure out what type of power of attorney you might need: Power of Attorney? Enduring Power of Attorney? Bank Power of Attorney? Sometimes we get mixed up by terms that refer to laws outside BC. Presented with Ron Usher, lawyer, general counsel for Society of Notaries of BC, volunteer on Nidus Board of Directors.

④ Joint Ownership: the good, the bad, and the risky!

Joint ownership is NOT a substitute for planning in case of incapacity or end-of-life. Joint ownership is not designed for these purposes. Joint ownership of bank accounts, real estate, and vehicles is common for spouses due to convenience and shared life goals. Learn about recent court cases that question some common assumptions about joint ownership with someone other than a spouse.

⑥ Being a representative. Being an attorney. Being effective!

Are you named as a representative or a monitor in a Representation Agreement? Are you an attorney named in an Enduring Power of Attorney? What are your primary duties? What authority do you have? This webinar is designed for individuals – spouses, family members, and friends – acting in these roles.
